The 1931 Christmas Issue of THE AMERICAN KENNEL GAZETTE

should be the handsomest dog magazine ever published. The American Kennel Club is sparing no expense in its effort to make it a worthy contribution to the Yuletide season. Both in appearance and in the material it will contain, the issue will excel the handsome ones the Club has published in the past.

THE Christmas number is only one of the twelve handsome Gazette issues that are published by The American Kennel Club throughout the year.

A year's subscription to the Gazette often solves the vital question of a Christmas present. For a dog lover, no better gift is possible. Once a month it is a handsome reminder of the person who made the present.

A dog is also a splendid Christmas present. The Christmas issue of the Gazette will tell you where you can buy dogs, dog fittings, or dog supplies from reputable people. If you are thinking of putting a dog, or something relating to a dog, in some one's Christmas stocking, read the advertisements in the Christmas issue, and purchase what you want in time.

If you have dogs, or anything pertaining to dogs, for sale, be sure to advertise them in the Christmas issue. The American Kennel Gazette has the largest net paid circulation of any dog magazine whose books are audited by the Audit Bureau of Circulations. You are not buying imaginary circulation. Also, its readers form the cream of the dog fancy throughout the world. Their purchasing power is untold.

The American Kennel Gazette is now to be found on the principal arteries of travel in many sections of the world. These include railroads and steamship lines.

As the official publication of The American Kennel Club, the information in the American Kennel Gazette is authentic, accurate, and worth while. Its veterinarian department, its many articles on kennel management and the proper feeding of dogs make the Gazette indispensable to owners of dogs of all breeds.

Place your reservation early for the de luxe Christmas Gazette. Invariably, they are all sold as soon as they leave the press.
